

SCHOOLS THAT CAN[®]

2012 NATIONAL FORUM : BOSTON

You are invited to collaborate with us this April.

When

April 25th - 27th, 2012

Where

DoubleTree Suites
by Hilton Hotel Boston
400 Soldiers Field Road
Boston, MA 02134

The Doubletree is the city's premier, all-suite hotel located beside the scenic Charles River and Boston Esplanade recreational trails with panoramic views of the Boston and Cambridge skylines yet just seven minutes from Logan International Airport.

Once a year STC conducts a National Forum in a different host city from our network. The Forum is a public, interactive conference with workshops, panels, and presentations led and attended by thought leaders in education, STC School Leaders, and guests gathered for a discourse on urban education.

This April an impressive cross-section of innovative and passionate educators and thought leaders will be coming to Boston for the annual STC National Forum.

Content of this year's Forum in Boston includes:

- Study Tours hosted by nationally acclaimed STC Boston schools
- Guest presenters including:
 - Chris Gabrieli:* Co-Founder and Chairman of Mass 2020 and the National Center on Time and Learning
 - Paul Reville:* Massachusetts Secretary of Education
 - Dr. Carol R. Johnson:* Superintendent of Boston Public Schools
 - ...and others to be announced soon.
- Workshops addressing the challenges and effective practices of executive directors, district level leadership, principals and instructional leaders regarding student support, research, theory, and policy
- Networking opportunities, an awards ceremony, and more!

Register online: <http://conta.cc/stcforum2012>

We look forward to seeing you this April.

Sincerely,

Schools That Can
forumregistration@schoolsthatcan.org