

SCHOOLS THAT CAN PRESENTS: BUILDING THE FUTURE OF THE INSURANCE WORKFORCE

APRIL 22nd, 2022 1PM EST, via ZOOM

At a critical time of labor shortages and increased demand for industry skills, there is an urgent need to understand how to build the future workforce of the insurance industry. We will be joined by outstanding leaders who will stimulate our thinking about this crucial topic. At a critical time, Schools That Can, a national not-for-profit organization, builds education to employment pipelines for future talent in K-12 underserved schools.
